3 Consent to access medical reports

It is important that you read and accept all of the following paragraphs. If you are unsure of anything or have any queries please contact us. Our details are at the end of this form.

Access to medical reports

Notice of your Statutory Rights under the Access to Medical Reports Act 1988, the Access to Personal Files and Medical Reports (Northern Ireland) Order 1991, and the Isle of Man Access to Health Records and Reports Act 1993.

Legal & General may need to get medical reports to support your absence from work. Before they can ask any doctor that you have consulted to provide a report they need your permission under the above Acts.

This permission is requested below. Your legal rights are as follows:

- You do not need to give your permission, but if you do not Legal & General may not be able to assess your incapacity and this may affect entitlement to benefit. This does not prevent you from applying to other companies for insurance.
- You can ask to see the report before the doctor returns it, in which case please tick the box under Medical Consent. If you do this the doctor can see that you require access and can keep the report for 21 days so that you can arrange to see it. If you have not made arrangements to see the report within this time the doctor will send the report to Legal & General.
- If you choose not to see the report at this stage you may ask the doctor for a copy within six months of it being sent. Legal & General can send a copy of the report to the doctor if you ask to see it at a later date.
- If you think that any part of the report is not correct or is misleading you may ask the doctor to amend it. If the doctor refuses to make the amendments you may ask him or her to attach a statement outlining your views, which will then accompany the report.
- The doctor can withhold access to the report if he or she feels that it would cause physical or mental harm to you or others.

The medical report your doctor provides tells us about your current health, any care, medication or treatment you are currently receiving. It also tells us the results of any referrals or tests.

If you have any questions about your rights under the Act or questions relating to the process of getting, assessing or storing medical information, please write to:

Benefits and Governance Director, Group Protection, Legal & General Assurance Society Limited, Four Central Square, Cardiff, CF10 1FS

Medical Consent:

If Legal & General decide they need to obtain a report from my doctor, I agree to them asking any doctor I have consulted about my physical or mental health to provide medical information so that they may assess entitlement to benefit.

If Legal & General need to obtain a report from my doctor:

- I do not want to see the report before it is sent to Legal & General
- I do want to see the report before it is sent to Legal & General

I consent to:

- Legal & General gathering information from other insurance companies about other applications for life, critical illness, sickness, disability, accident or private medical insurance that I or my employer have made.
- Legal & General obtaining medical information about me from my employer, any professional medical adviser appointed by my employer or any agent my employer may have used to medically assess me at any time.

I authorise those asked to provide medical information to do so when they see a copy of this consent form.

I confirm that I have read and accepted this Consent. I also confirm I have read my rights under the Access to Medical Reports Act.

By signing this Consent I agree to all of the contents.
